3. Question was raised on Contract CT-22 as to what was the basis for the [REDACTED] requested for spares. Unsatisfactory explanation given was [REDACTED] per aircraft for fourteen aircraft. Rationale as to how [REDACTED] arrived at was explained as a guess based upon Lockheed experience and could not be justified as to exact numbers of pumps, wheels, etc. [REDACTED] will meet with [REDACTED] of Lockheed on Tuesday to further discuss this. [REDACTED] was called and alerted as to the impending visit by [REDACTED]

4. The answer to the budgetary gyrations to reach $1.1M for Tech Reps at [REDACTED] from Perkin-Elmer was unsatisfactory. A quick addition disclosed roughly between five and six hundred thousand dollars in Tech Reps. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were queried as to the breakout of the [REDACTED], but were unable to give the answer. I have asked [REDACTED] to follow through on this and give me a complete breakout of this particular contract so that we will be prepared to brief [REDACTED] upon his return from [REDACTED]. The contract officer from Perkin-Elmer will be in Headquarters early next week and will bring complete justification for this contract with him. At that time, I plan to discuss the breakout of [REDACTED] and get a firm answer for [REDACTED]
